Can Love Be Insured?

This young man thought it could and he bet the girl would marry a certain man. She was an heiress, and he worked for the insurance company. But he messed things up by falling in love with the girl. Then the fun began. It's a real comedy, by the author of "Seven Keys to Baldpate."

SENATE PROBES FORD'S DEFEAT

Dillingham Heads Committee to Investigate Newberry Election.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Investigation of the Ford-Newberry senatorial election contest from Michigan was authorized today by the senate which adopted a resolution by Senator Dillingham, Democrat, Ohio, providing for the inquiry.

No roll call was necessary and there was less than a minute's discussion to bring out that the measure previously had been approved by the privileges and elections committee, which will conduct the inquiry.

Hearings under the resolution are not expected to start until after the holidays and they may be confined to the election since the alleged frauds during the primaries now are being dealt with by the courts.

The Pomeroy resolution was favorably reported by the senate expenditures committee and unanimous consent was given for its immediate consideration. This resolution gives the privileges and elections committee broad powers to take evidence and to preserve ballots and other documents. It specifically directs investigation of charges and counter-charges of excessive and illegal expenditures of money and unlawful practices in connection with the said election of a senator from the state of Michigan.

Senator Dillingham, Republican, Vermont, as chairman of the privileges and elections committee, will have charge of the investigation. He is expected to arrive in Washington Saturday, and the committee will meet next week to make plans for the inquiry.

Senator Newberry was not in the senate when the Pomeroy resolution was adopted.

BUSINESS GROUPS FAVOR PROGRAM

Head of Chamber of Commerce Easily "Sells" Sustaining Fund Proposition.

W. H. Fitzhugh, president of the Chamber of Commerce, continues to "sell" his proposition that the business men of Memphis underwrite an annual sustaining fund of $100,000 to finance the Chamber of Commerce in a program of increased community service. Thus far he has placed the proposition before the wholesale grocers, automobile dealers, druggists and grocers, each of which groups has endorsed the plan and pledged its pro rata of the fund. In all a total of $11,500, divided in the following sums, has been subscribed: Grocers, $3,750; auto dealers, $2,750; druggists, $2,250; and jewelers, $2,750. In the next day or two Mr. Fitzhugh will lunch with the hay, grain and flour dealers group, the retail hardware and implement dealers group, the electric supply companies, bag and paper manufacturers, auto accessory, oil and gas dealers, tire dealers, undertakers and laundry and dry cleaners groups. These groups represent $14,250 of the total pro rata. Many other groups are to be met.

Willful Violators Of Fuel Order Only Will Be Prosecuted

Only willful violation of the orders of the fuel administration regarding opening and closing hours are to be taken up by the office of the United States district attorney at Memphis. The police department will be relied upon to assist in the enforcement of the minor violations due to misunderstanding of orders or ignorance.

The office of the district attorney Wednesday was still without official information concerning the regulations imposed for the saving of fuel and were depending entirely upon press reports for their guidance.

Stanley H. Trezvant, United States marshal, Wednesday morning asked Hulet Smith, chief of detectives, to have his men notify all shoe fitting parlors that they must close at 4 o'clock. The marshal stated that these stands had been kept open and that such was a violation of the regulations as promulgated and must cease.

Several other infractions of the rules were reported to the district attorney's office, the complainants being told that an investigation would be made.

Federal officials, however, were well satisfied with the general observance of the regulations and expressed the opinion that the general tendency was toward strict observance of all of the orders so far issued.

Fortune Smiled; Then Aged Woman, Killed By St. Car

Injuries received when she was run down by a street car last Monday morning proved fatal Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock to Mrs. Susan Wood, aged 74 years. Death was caused by an intracranial fracture.

Mrs. Wood was run down by street car No. 127, at Ravenna boulevard and 4th street. She had moved to 853 Gilbert avenue. She had moved to 853 Gilbert avenue. She had moved to 853 Gilbert avenue.

The body is held at Thompson-Reed undertaking parlors, pending advice from Mrs. Wood's daughter, Mrs. Thomas Belle Bradford, 725 E. Third street.

For years Mrs. Wood lived at the home for the Aged and Infirm. She worked there for her husband and son. Mrs. Wood was the widow of a federal soldier. For 25 years she sought to get a pension from the government. Finally her efforts were crowned with success. She got her first pension check for $41 about a week ago. On receipt of it she left the institution, where she had labored for so many years, and obtained a room on Ravenna boulevard. The next day she was run down by the car.

Police have not arrested the motorist.

BREAK IN COLD WAVE IS FORECAST

"Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday, continued cold with temperature about stationary," is the weather forecast given out Wednesday morning by local officials. A minimum temperature of 38 degrees was registered at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning and it is probable that the thermometer will be one or two degrees under that figure Thursday morning.

Local weather officials are expecting a break in the present cold wave Thursday, and present indications are that the temperature will moderate during Thursday.

OVER 400 WOODEN SHIPS ARE BUILT IN YEAR

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Four hundred and ten wooden ships out of a total of 1,187 seagoing vessels in the record of American shipbuilding since the armistice. During the 12 months ended Nov. 1, 1919, American shipyards have turned out 2,255 vessels of 4,258,045 gross tons, officially numbered by the bureau of navigation, department of commerce. Of these 1,187 were seagoing. During the 12 months ended Nov. 1, 1918, the corresponding output was 2,250,000 gross tons.

BRICKLAYER SUES FOR HUGE SCOTCH ESTATE

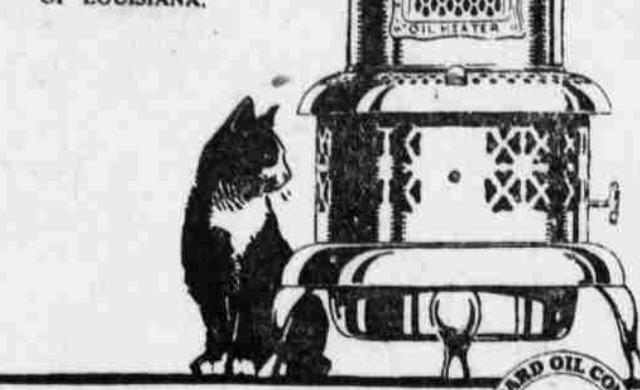

EDINBURGH, Scotland, Dec. 3.—John Backstax, a bricklayer, claiming to be heir to a rich Scottish estate, has begun an effort to obtain possession of 19 square miles of land with an annual rent roll of $150,000. The estates concerned are now the property of the Lennox family of Dumbarton. The claimant alleges that he can trace his ancestry to 1581 and that his great-grandmother was a descendant of Douglas, sixth duke of Hamilton, and a nephew of Mary, Queen of Scots.

A Simple Way to Reduce Wrinkles

Remember that wrinkles and bagginess of cheek or chin are due to the muscular tissue losing its strength and elasticity. The skin is then too large in area to fit such tissue smoothly. It wrinkles or sags.

To remedy this condition, there's nothing so effective, so quick acting, as a simple wash lotion so easily made at home. Just get an ounce of pure powdered saxolite from your druggist and a half pint of witch hazel, mix the two and bathe your face in the liquid. This at once tightens the skin and softifies the underlying tissue, which, of course, smooths out the lines and draws in the sagging skin. It also stimulates capillary circulation, bringing natural color to faded cheeks.
